Health Safety & Environment Policy

At Finepac Structures we simply believe our people are our most important resource and their health and safety is our most important priority which cannot be substituted.

We believe that effective HSE management is beneficial to everyone involved and are committed to the continuous improvement of our HSE management practices.

Our endeavour is to make our manufacturing sites free of accidents and injuries. We aim to do this by developing safe work practices and a healthy work environment and inculcating a sense of safety amongst our workers by thorough adherence to these practices.

Our Commitment :

- Strictly comply with all health and safety requirements and other relevant industrial safety standard
- Implement a risk management approach by consulting our workers, employees.
- Regularly educate and train our workers and employees to perform their duties safely.
- Regularly evaluate and make an effort to improve our safety system.
- Ensure all incidents and near misses are documented, evaluated and proper measures are taken to minimise the possibility of their occurrence.
- Ensure that positive safety behaviour is rewarded.
- Regularly audit, monitor and review our health and safety performance against agreed targets.
